125,000+ New eBooks Now Available!

August 27, 2015

We are happy to announce that the ProQuest Ebrary Academic Complete eBook Collection is now available to all GALILEO institutions, adding over 125,000 new titles to our eBook collection! This additional resource was purchased by GALILEO with some USG year-end funds, along with consultation by the The Regents Academic Committee on Libraries (RACL) Committee Chair and Vice Chair.

These titles are now available in the Ebrary database, which you can access via the library's A-Z Database List or on select Library Research Guides.

Titles will be added to the Library Catalog soon.

Please contact the Information Desk (tel:912-478-5645) with any questions.

Popular Magazine Titles Now Available on Flipster

August 27, 2015

We have just added some of our most popular magazine titles to Flipster, our platform for viewing the print format of magazines and journals online. Check out these titles:

Ebony

Essence

Library Journal

Rolling Stone

Sound & Vision

Flipster is compatible with web browsers and mobile devices, and allows readers to flip through pages that look identical to the print copy. Flipster is available on the library's A-Z Databases list and select research guides. See this FAQ post for more information on how to use Flipster.

Please contact the Information Desk (tel:912-478-5645) with any questions.

New Research Tool for Engineering: Knovel

August 27, 2015

We are excited to announce the addition of Knovel, a powerful research tool for engineering. Access Knovel from the Library's A-Z Database List or from select Library Research Guides.

Knovel provides general reference and best practice insights, process and design applications, material and substance properties data, and equations for specific engineering disciplines. Moreover, Knovel includes interactive tools for initial calculations, engineering-focused and data search features, mobile capabilities, and integrations with engineering software and applications.

Visit the Knovel support site for instructions on how to navigate and use Knovel, as well as see this FAQ post for additional information.

Please contact the Information Desk (tel:912-478-5645) with any questions.
